

FEAU & CIE

Stunning antique panelling dating from 17th to 18th century and collections of works by French artists such as Eugene Printz, Jacques-Emile Ruhlmann and Emilio Terry set the brand apart. Their collaborations with decorators, architects and collectors too are widely known. Website: www.feauboiserie.fr

ELLE
DECOR
LOVES

AESTHETIC SHOWCASE

LA BIENNALE DES ANTIQUAIRES 2016

In its 28th edition, the renowned fair illuminated the Gran Palais Museum in Paris with the best of French art de vivre and exquisite collections, presented by 125 exhibitors from around the world. We cherry-picked the dealers whose magnificent displays took our breath away

PRODUCED BY PRAMITI MADHAVJI
ASSISTED BY ADITI SHARMA MAHESHWARI

GALERIE CHEVALIER

Specialising in old and contemporary tapestry, carpets, architectural textiles, furniture and fibre art, the label also boasts of a rich international clientele of individuals, museum curators and interior designers. Website: www.galerie-chevalier.com

THE STATE HERMITAGE MUSEUM

The Russian outfit has over three million chronicles of art, sculptures and artefacts. They unveiled 35 masterpieces from the 18th century including paintings, porcelain and silver, and a portrait of the former prince of France, Louis XV made by the European Sevres Porcelain Factory in 1761. Website: www.hermitagemuseum.org

GALERIE LUMIERES

Brainchild of Regis Mathieu, the president of Mathieu Lustrerie and managed by artistic director Philippe Renaud, the gallery is a treasure trove of opulent illuminators steeped in vintage charm. On show were lighting artefacts and 12 vintage chandeliers dating back from the 15th century to the 1930s. Website: www.galerielumieres.com

GALERIE ZLOTOWSKI

Dedicated to the preservation of modern art and avant-garde works of the 20th century, the place has also been instrumental in the rediscovery of the illustrious Swiss-French architect Le Corbusier's paintings. Exhibited at the event were numerous artworks by the late creative and collections from the years 1950-1965, with a focus on a rare tapestry on the theme of musicians.

Website: www.galeriezlotowski.fr

